SANS885 to be referenced by a DAFF Regulation currently in draft

- Next Steps –
 - SAMPA has had significant dealings with DAFF regarding the legislation regarding Processed Meats.
 - DAFF has agreed to work with SAMPA and industry during the drafting of the Legislation.
 - DAFF and SABS met, and agreed that owing to the fact that SANS885 is widely accepted in industry that Legislation would reference SANS885 in its document.
 - Legislation to specific to the definitions of Processed Meat in SANS885 and excludes boerewors, sausages, burger patties, mixed species sausages etc.
 - Draft Legislation is currently out for comment due 07 August 2017.
 - The Agency for Food Safety has been appointed as the Assignee for the Industry.
 - In the interim, SAMPA is self-policing the compositional component of SANS885 utilising the available levy funds and notifying Retailers and/or Processors where there is non-compliance
 - SAMPA has initiated a Voluntary Levy in order to increase product testing and to prove that a significant amount of compliance testing can be done to police industry and to keep costs as low as possible
 - SAMPA has a full time General Manager to facilitate the collection of levies with the RMLA as well as attend to product sampling, testing and subsequent industry liaison
